

Conflicts and Historical Monuments

By Takahiro Odaka

Chronological table

595-537 BC	Babylonian Captivity
1096-1303	Crusade
1916	Sykes-Picot Agreement
1947	United Nations Partition Plan for Palestine
1978-2003	Archaeological Restoration of Babylon Project, Iraq
1991	Dissolution of the Soviet Union
1992-1995	Bosnian War
2001	Destruction of Buddhas of Bamyān in Afghanistan by Taliban*
2003	Iraq War
2012	Destruction of Tombouctou in Mali by Anṣār ad-Dīn*
2015	Destruction of Cultural Heritages in Iraq and Syria by ISIL*	(* terrorist group)

Persons and organizations

Nebuchadnezzar/Nabû-kudurri-uṣur II (ca. 634-562 BC)

The second King of the Neo-Babylonian Empire (ca. 605-562 BC), identified in the Bible as the king destroying Solomon's Temple in Jerusalem and initiating the Babylonian Captivity.

Saladin/Ṣalāḥ ad-Dīn (1137/38-1193)

The leader of the Muslim military against the Crusader states and the Third Crusade (1189-1192), and the first Sultan of the Ayyubid Dynasty (1171-1193).

Vladimir Lenin (1870-1924)

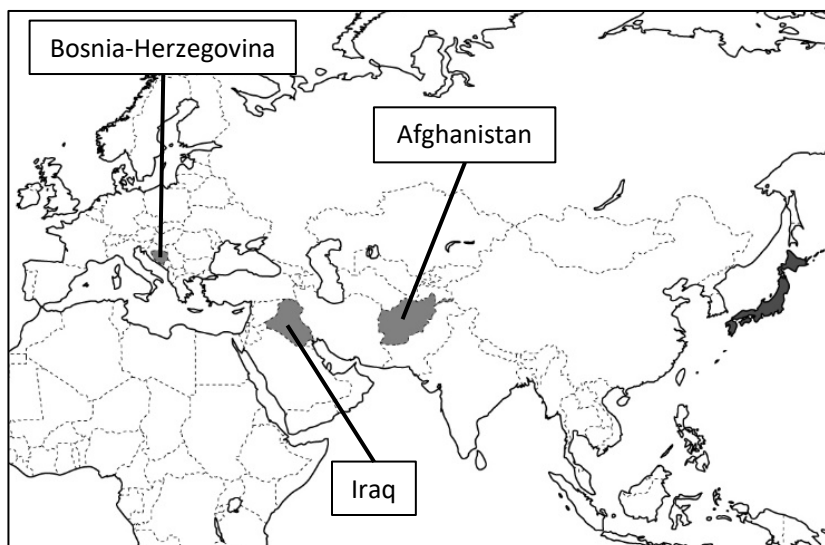

The first Chairman of the Council of People's Commissars of Soviet Russia (1917-1924) and of the Soviet Union (1922-1924).

Saddam Hussein/Ṣaddām Ḥusayn (1937-2006)

The fifth President of Iraq (1979-2003), executed as a result of the Iraq War.

Taliban/Tālibān (1994-)

A Sunni Islamic fundamentalist political and military organization in Afghanistan, founded by Mohammed Omar (1960?-2013). They refer to themselves as the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan.

Locations of the main topics

Further readings

『イスラームと文化財』野口淳・安倍雅史／編著，新泉社，2015年。

『国際紛争 —理論と歴史 [原書第10版]』ジョセフ S. ナイ ジュニア・デイヴィッド A. ウェルチ／著，有斐閣，2017年。（Understanding Global Conflict and Cooperation: An Introduction to Theory and History, 10th edition, by Joseph S. Nye, Jr. and David A. Welch. London: Pearson Education, 2016.）